The Job

Music Forward is seeking a dynamic, self-starter who is passionate about the live entertainment industry and helping young people identify pathways to success. The Facilitator executes a series of career exploration and preparation workshops in-person and virtually, in this seasonal, part-time, non-exempt position. Successful candidates will have some experience in program facilitation and youth engagement, while demonstrating excellent organization and communication skills. Facilitation training will be provided. This position reports to the Education Partnerships Manager and is based in Los Angeles.

Details of the job

- Execute a series of program workshops, on-site and virtually, for high school and post-secondary aged youth, leveraging Music Forward content and curriculum for artist and career development. Virtual workshops will be held in a series of four sessions, typically once a week. In-person workshops will be held bi-weekly in sites (typically high schools) across Los Angeles.
- Drive set up for workshop and arrive prepared (familiar with audience, event logistics, speaker bios, event flow and goals, etc.) and on time.
- Effectively manage time and flow of workshops to ensure all goals of session are met. Be attentive and adaptable to youth and experts to ensure engagement in workshops.
- Serve as moderator for guest speakers attending workshops as industry experts.
- Provide feedback on participant workshop materials and logistics as needed.
- Support the collection and reporting of attendance and assessment materials for workshops.
- Be responsive to emails and phone calls from Music Forward staff and workshop contacts.
- Additional event duties as needed.

What you bring

- 2+ years of workshop facilitation experience
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Some knowledge of workforce development
- An interest in live entertainment
- Attention to detail and strong organizational skills
- Sound judgment, professionalism, and a positive "can-do" attitude
- Ability to lead and work with diverse groups of people and youth ages 13-24
- Has a growth mindset, open to training, feedback, as well as a self-driven learner
- A personal cell phone

- A personal car or regular access to reliable transportation, along with a valid driver's license and proof of car insurance; mileage reimbursed
- Flexibility to work during weekdays, Monday – Friday, 8:30am-4pm. Workshop days/times typically set 2+ weeks in advance.
